

Adjective-Adjective-Noun Organizer

We want our children to compose stories that are interesting. It is imperative that they use a variety of adjectives to describe nouns. Children need to learn that adjectives tell you more about a person, place, or thing. Below, you will see examples of the Adjective-Adjective-Noun organizer to help children describe nouns.

Attribute	Adjective	Adjective	Noun
Appearance	beautiful	glimmering	eyes
Size	teeny	tiny	mouse
Color	blue	polka dotted	racecar
Shape	long	curly	hair
Feelings	sad	lonely	child
